

The Daily Gazetteer.

MONDAY, JUNE 14. 1736.

N^o 301.

To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

S I R,

In a Scarcity of News, and a Recess from the Business and Pleasures of the Town, during this Summer Season, it is requested of you, by several Gentlemen, that you will communicate to the Publick, now and then, a Letter concerning the Sugar Colonies, — the British Sugar Colonies, Sir!

And surely if their Case be desperate without immediate Relief, the British Sugar Colonies do demand (we say do demand) the Attention of every one that wishes well to this Nation.

THE Letters designed to be sent you on this Subject, will be all, either written, or the Substance of them supplied by Gentlemen of long Experience, and of the utmost Veracity. Such as are able to give a History of the Rise and Progress of their Disease, and to point out the only Remedies that can restore them from their present dangerous Condition, and which, if longer neglected, must certainly end in nothing less than Death itself.

As many of these Letters will be wrote on various Occasions, and come from divers Places and several Hands, the Publick is not to expect the like Connection and Uniformity in them, as in one continued and methodical Discourse; but then, Gentlemen who have been conversant with the Epistolary Writings of the Ancients or Moderns, know very well, that Writings of no other Sort yield so ample and circumstantial Instruction. — As to Style: it is not usual for People of Business to make Apologies for that: If they be written with a tolerable Degree of Conciseness and Perspicuity, it will be thought sufficient; and the Writers of these Letters, we dare say, will neither expect or desire the Applause of fine Writers; nor are they in the least solicitous about it. The Preservation of the British Sugar Trade and Colonies is their Task and Concern; and they may be really thought at this time of Day to be mindful of nothing else; — they are struggling for Life! only for Life itself! as will but too plainly appear.

Tho' the Letters will be miscellaneous, yet some general Heads all along, throughout the Whole, will be kept in View; as,

1. THE great Value and Importance of our Sugar Trade and Colonies to Great Britain.
2. THE Causes of their Declension.
3. THE Certainty of the irrecoverable Loss of the said Sugar Colonies and Trade, without a most speedy Regulation. — And,

THESE Things, Sir, being once fully and evidently demonstrated beyond the Possibility of Exception, so as to remove all manner of Scruple concerning them, it is not to be doubted but proper Measures will forthwith be taken to retrieve this invaluable Trade by his most gracious Majesty and the worthy Gentlemen in the present Administration; and 'to facilitate and forward the passing any Bill into a Law, that may hereafter be thought necessary, is the principal Design of the present Undertaking.' For Great Britain has not hitherto sufficiently regarded the vast Advantages which the French have gained over us in one Respect, viz. They regulate, establish, and execute by an Edict, as much (and that too more effectually) in the Space of a few Days or Weeks, as we do within the Compass of Months and Years; and frequently before our Acts of Parliament do pass, they have Time to counterwork and undermine all we design to effect thereby, which hitherto, we think, they have never fail'd to make use of to their own Benefit and our Disadvantage.

In fine, these Letters that are offered to be sent you, it is to be hoped, may prove to be of the greatest Service to this Nation; and as you have published some Letters heretofore on the same Subject, it is presumed, that such a Correspondence will not be unacceptable to you, or the Generality of your Readers.

If any Gentleman, Merchant, Planter, or others, shall be disposed to communicate their Thoughts on the Subject, they are thereto invited, and all due Regard shall be shewn them; and as we only desire the Facts may be true that they transmit to us, so we think proper to acquaint them, that they need be under no Concern as to their Manner of writing, Truth being the Thing we are in Pursuit of.

AND if any worthy and intelligent Person (whose Character, we presume, may, in a great Measure, be discovered from his writing) shall be desirous to have any particular Questions resolved (that, he thinks, may contribute to explain the chief Points we have said we shall keep in View) he is hereby requested to state and transmit them to us, and we promise to answer his Expectations, as soon as conveniently may be.

Our Correspondents that are unknown, must direct their Letters, To the Sugar Planters, at Mr. T. Cooper's, at the Globe in Pater-noster-row. Post paid.

WHEN you have published this Letter in the Daily Gazetteer, you may expect soon to hear further from us. In the mean time we remain,

S I R,

Your most humble Servants,

June 8th, 1736.

The Sugar Planters.

Milan, May 21. O. S.

IT is given out, that the Courts of Spain and Naples make the following Demands upon the Court of Rome. 1. That the Pope shall renounce the Right of nominating Persons to fill up the vacant Benefices in the Kingdoms of Spain and Sicily. 2. That his Holiness shall renounce his Pretensions to the Right of Investiture in the two Kingdoms aforesaid. 3. That the Duchy of Castro, and the Principality of Ronciglione, now in Possession of the Holy See, shall be restored to the King of Sicily. 4. That his Sicilian Majesty shall be acknowledged perpetual Dictator of Rome, in the same Manner, and with the same Honours, as was Charles I. King of Spain. 5. That that Prince shall have Power to nominate a Cardinal, besides the Prerogative of having an Auditor of the Rota at Rome, and a Consistorial Advocate. 6. That the Court of Rome shall pay the Expenses of the March of the Spanish and Neapolitan Troops into the Ecclesiastical Territories. If these Demands are real, it looks as if their Catholick and Sicilian Majesties, instead of accepting a reasonable Satisfaction, were resolved to demolish, at least, one Tier of the Papal Crown.

Hanover, June 1. O. S. The Day after his Majesty's Arrival here, he was at Divine Service in the Chapel of the Castle of Herenhausen, then took the Air in the great Garden along the Canal, dined in publick, and stopt in like Manner, in Sight of a great Number of Spectators. His Majesty's private Secretaries, Reichen and Hattorf, arriving the same Day from England, appeared at Court Yesterday, to receive his Majesty's Orders. The German Chancery is also arrived from London; and Yesterday the King began to give Audience to his Ministers, which he will continue to do alternately to his general Officers every other Day. It is now said there will be no Camp near this City, but his Majesty will review his Troops in the Places where they are quartered; however, his Majesty has not yet determined which to do.

Ratisbon, May 28. O. S. The Revocation of the fourth Article of the Treaty of Ryswick, as demanded by the Protestants, meets with great Difficulties from the Roman Catholick States of the Empire, who desire it may be maintained in full Force.

This Article, which makes so much Noise, and is like to make still more, being known but to few People, 'tis thought fit to insert it at Length, from the First Volume of the General Collection of Treaties lately published in four Volumes in Octavo.

4. 'In the first Place, Restitution shall be made to his Sacred Imperial Majesty, by the Empire, and to the States and Members thereof, by the most Christian King, of whatever was seized, as well during the War, and by way of Fact, as under the Names of Unions, be they Places or Jurisdictions situate in Alsatia; as also under the Name of Re-unions, all Decrees, Arrests, and Declarations being made void, which upon that Account have been put forth by the Chambers of Metz and Besancon, as also the Council of Brisac; and all Things shall be brought into the same State they were before such Seizures, Unions, or Re-unions were made, and are for the future no Manner of Way to be altered or incommoded; but yet so as that the Roman Catholick Religion shall continue in the State 'tis at present in the Places to be restored.' N. B. This is the Clause in question.

Stockholm, May 21. O. S. The four Members of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Paris, who were appointed by the King of France to go and determine the Measure of the Earth under the North Pole, arrived here the 10th Instant, on board a French Ship from Dunkirk. Next Day the French Ambassador introduced them to the King and Queen, who gave them a gracious Reception. They propose to set out in 2 Days for Torno, a little Town of Bothnia, on the Northern Side of the Gulph of that Name, after which they will make their Way into Lapland; and they reckon it will take them up almost a Year to make their Observations. They are to be accompanied by several learned Men of the Universities of this Kingdom, and his Swedish Majesty has sent Orders to the Governors and Commanders of the Provinces thro' which they are to pass, to give them all necessary Assistance. They have brought with them from France a Roman Catholick Priest and a Baker, two Cooks, and some other Domesticks.

L O N D O N.

Yesterday being Whitsunday, and Collar-day at Court, the Knights Companions of the most noble Order of the Garter, Thistle, and Bath, appeared in the Collars of their respective Orders. The Rev. Dr. Gilbert, Dean of Exeter, and Sub-Almoner, preached before her Majesty and the Princesses Amelia and Caroline, at the Chapel Royal at Kensington.

On Friday last an elderly Man, judged to be about 60, was found drowned at Mill-bank near Sir Robert Grosvenor's. His Corpse was afterwards carried to the White Hart at the Horse-ferry, where the Coroner's Inquest sat on it; but no Person could give any Account of the Corpse, notwithstanding it was exposed to publick View for some time.

On Saturday last the Sessions ended at the Old Baily, when 13 Prisoners were tried, one of whom was capitally convicted, and received Sentence of Death, viz. George Watson, otherwise called Yorkshire George, for the Murder of Samuel Alexander, a Watchman, in Bushill-fields, in May 1733. Five were cast for Transportation, and 7 acquitted. There was one burnt in the Hand.

STONY STRATFORD.

WHEREAS we are credibly informed,
that some fraudulent and wicked Persons do go about the Country with pretended Petitions or Letters of Request in print, alledging, that they are employ'd to receive and collect such Sums of Money as well-disposed Christians shall be pleased to give for the Relief of the late Sufferers by Fire at Stony Stratford, Bucks; these are therefore to certify, there hath not been any Content given by any of the Sufferers, or any other Person concerned for them, to issue out any such Letters in print; neither is it intended, that there should be any such Letters printed at any time hereafter; and if at any time for the future, any Person should be detected in bringing such printed Petitions, it is hereby desired that they should be secured, in order to their being prosecuted as Imposters and Cheats; and the said Sufferers do hereby certify, that they will be at the Expence of the Prosecution.

Advertisements concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookseller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuits, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholic Bookseller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits; replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform himself what it was. Being told by the Bookseller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, shrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he saw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more adviseable to purchase the whole Edition, which they soon after did, some few Copies excepted; from one of these it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there said to be taken from two Roman Catholics, Men of Credit.

X. A REPORT from the COMMITTEE appointed to

It is to be observed, (For the Satisfaction of all Persons, who are fearful and doubtful of using any Publick Medicines)

That there never was, nor will be, a good and beneficial Medicine published to the World, without finding Enemies, whose Interest it is, not only to decry and vilify, but often to counterfeit it; and the better the Medicine, the greater the Opposition: Therefore all doubtful People should have Recourse to Experience, the infallible Attender of Truth, without Prejudice or Partiality. Let them enquire of the Success of the Medicine, either where it is sold, but rather of those who have used it; and if they are informed the Effects of it answer the Intentions, let them freely use it, without regarding what Malice, Interest, or Prejudice may suggest against it.
